

THE MICHIGAN GUARANTY AGENCY PRESENTS THE 2005 DEFAULT AVERSION BEST PRACTICES SYMPOSIUM

When: March 29, 2005, 9:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Where: Schoolcraft Community College VisTaTech Center

Cost: No cost

For Whom: Financial aid directors, associate directors, default aversion specialists, and others interested in financial literacy or default aversion.

Featured Speakers:

Laura Levine - Executive Director of the Jump$tart Coalition, a non-profit organization that seeks to improve the personal financial literacy of young adults. Jump$tart works closely with congressional leaders in finding ways to include financial literacy in today's educational curriculum.

Carl George, CPA - Chairs the National CPA Financial Literacy Commission to advance the financial literacy of Americans through the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). AICPA has authored 360 Degrees of Financial Literacy, a multi-faceted, comprehensive approach to advancing financial education.

In addition to the featured speakers, there will be two opportunities to participate in open forum breakout sessions to discuss:

- In-School Aversion Activities
- Post-Graduate Aversion Activities

Breakout session facilitators:

Susan Crkovski, Executive Director of Financial Aid, Davenport University System

Rick Shipman, Director, Office of Financial Aid, Michigan State University

Linda Sigh, Assistant Financial Aid Director, Michigan State University

Heide Wisby, Director of System Financial Aid Programs, Davenport University System

If you have any questions concerning this symposium, please contact Justin Draeger at 1-800-642-5626, extension 31940.

